6A2-5 Michelle Arceo Provides Support and Motivation for Her Winning Team in Canada

A photograph of a waterfall cascading over mossy rocks in a forest. The water is white and frothy as it falls, surrounded by lush green foliage and trees. The scene is captured in a slightly desaturated, naturalistic style.

Ending the year with a good result is important for any business and life. Especially as a “leader,” you are now responsible not only for yourself, but also your whole team. We are sure that there are still many people in the world looking for opportunities. True leaders must lend a hand to those in need.

Message from Mr. Ohshiro

Participate in Friendly Competition for Fall and Plan for the 2025 Global Convention

I built Enagic on empathy, support and teamwork, but there's nothing wrong with a little friendly competition. Especially when they align with our core values. We're currently featuring contests for Independent Distributors, with more details available at enagic.com.

On October 7, we started a Direct Sales Campaign. Any new or existing distributor that makes 3 direct sales in 1 week is eligible for up to a $1,500 bonus, depending on the ionizer and price in each country. Distributors can participate in this campaign once a month for as long as it lasts.

The Daily 6A Rank-Up Achievement Group Support Contest is also open to new and existing Independent Distributors. The goal for this contest is to motivate current 1A-5A distributors to achieve 6A and encourage direct sponsor and upline ranked 6A and above to support and mentor potential new 6As. Each new 6A distributor, direct sponsor, and upline ranked 6A and above will have a chance to win the daily contest bonus. Find the contest multiplier and bonus charts at the Distributor Support Portal (DSP), check on the status for individual and group sales, and see what you can do to achieve together.

Good news for anybody who attended our Enagic 50th Anniversary Global Convention in Okinawa and for people interested in sharing a memorable communal event.. Tickets are available for the 2025 Global Convention, which is on June 20-21 at Gaylord Pacific Resort & Convention Center in Chula Vista, California. Top leaders will share inspiring speeches about their Enagic journeys and lead valuable training sessions. We'll host a Global Contest VIP Dinner, have a 6A and above recognition ceremony and more. Tickets are available online at the $199 early bird price through December 31. Join us for an unforgettable experience!

This contest and convention talk is making me thirsty. Time to drink and share Kangen Water®.

Change Your Life Story

Michelle Arceo

6A2-5

6A2-5 Michelle Arceo, a top performer who grew up in the Philippines before moving to Canada with her family, learned about Enagic and Kangen Water® in a modern way. She was scrolling on Facebook and “encountered an intriguing advertisement.”

The timing couldn’t have been better. Michelle earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the University of Santo Tomas in Manila and worked for years as a realtor, a retail sales professional, and a part-time licensed financial advisor. She even assisted a co-worker with her house cleaning business. Despite her best efforts, this income was not enough to provide a better life for her family in Canada and support her parents back in the Philippines.

Michelle researched more and liked what she saw. “Discovering Enagic’s success and innovative patented 8-point compensation plan was a turning point, offering exceptional residual income opportunities at milestone levels,” she says. “The company’s decades of presence instilled confidence, ensuring a reliable business for future generations.”

Enagic's compensation plan and life-changing products, plus the supportive, encouraging and inspiring Dream Team online community and have been more rewarding on many levels. Michelle says, "By God's grace, I was guided to this incredible opportunity, which has profoundly improved my family's life."

Her prior experience has proven valuable.

"My extensive experience as a realtor, where I received multiple awards as a top producer, honed my ability to connect with people from all backgrounds with genuine empathy," Michelle says. "I learned the importance of listening to clients' needs and providing tailored solutions. I have always prioritized my clients' interests over financial rewards, believing that the mission should come before monetary gain. When you truly care about the well-being of others, you are rewarded abundantly."

Michelle became an Independent Distributor in 2018. Within a few weeks, she sold her first ionizer after promoting the Enagic business opportunity on social media. She then capitalized on lessons learned by training with their DT global online business community to reach more people and convert additional sales.

Michelle is now focused on helping people achieve True Health. "My primary goal is to equip individuals with holistic freedom, spanning financial, physical, and mental well-being, in alignment with Mr. Ohshiro's vision," she says. "I strive to provide sustained support and motivation to my Winning Team, enabling them to pursue their objectives and realize their aspirations for themselves and their families." Team achievements prove her system works.

Michelle makes regular efforts to educate, motivate and support her downline that have continued to pay dividends. "I prioritize effective communication and empower my team through various strategies," she says. "I ensure that I'm accessible when needed and collaborate with Dan, my life partner, who is also a business coach/strategist, to provide personalized guidance and advice for team members, whether they are new partners or seasoned members."

"I also organize meetups and participate in leaders' Zoom calls for shared learning and inspiration,"

Michelle says. "These activities foster a supportive community, particularly through my Winning Team Facebook group and other channels, where team members can connect and exchange ideas." She also hosts meet-ups and parties and provides personalized one-on-one mentorship to help each team member "overcome challenges and leverage their strengths."

Michelle's positive impact isn't limited to Independent Distribution. "Through my business, I have been able to contribute to the community, including feeding programs and outreach initiatives," she says. "I have also supported Mr. Ohshiro's foundation through events like the California Golf Tournament and the VIP dinner in Okinawa. I am confident that my Winning Team Eagles and I will continue to reach significant milestones and help the company with the vision and mission."

Michelle has many responsibilities, but makes sure she doesn't just work. "I find great pleasure in a variety of activities that help me relax and have fun," she says. "Spending quality time with my family is a top priority, as it strengthens our bonds and provides emotional support. I also enjoy gardening, which offers both relaxation and a sense of accomplishment as I nurture plants and cultivate a beautiful outdoor space. Nature trips are another favorite, as exploring natural landscapes allows me to unwind and disconnect from daily routines." Michelle also appreciates boat cruises, road trips, "retail therapy," dancing and karaoke. "Each of these activities contributes to a well-rounded and fulfilling lifestyle," she says. "I'm grateful that our effective online system allows us to seamlessly balance work and play. Whether we're traveling or spending quality time together, our business continues to operate smoothly without interruption."

Australia Distributor Profile

Nhung Anh Ngo

6A2-3

6A2-3 Nhung Anh Ngo had humble beginnings in Thái Bình, a coastal province in North Vietnam. She faced health challenges in 2017. Remarkably, Nhung Anh never lost her determination or entrepreneurial spirit and built an impressive business.

Nhung Anh learned about Kangen Water® and Enagic in 2019. She was impressed with the opportunity to achieve financial freedom and make a positive impact on other people's lives. "I also love that I can share the opportunity with people around me," she says. Together, we can inspire others." Nhung Anh became an Independent Distributor and started her shared "journey of wellness and abundance." She established Enagic showrooms in Vietnam and now splits time between Vietnam and Sydney, Australia, promoting Kangen Water®'s benefits.

Nhung Anh also owns two supermarkets that import cosmetics from France and Germany and supply products to 64 different cities across Vietnam. The skills she’s learned from this experience have translated well to Independent Distribution. “I learned how to deal with high pressure situations, learned to sell, and learned to be me,” she says. “I learned how to communicate effectively and build great relationships with customers, wholesalers, staff and many people around me. The experience helps me a lot to do business as a distributor.”

“My first sale was to one of my best friends, 6A2 Vanessa Nguyen,” Nhung Anh says. “She has been helping me and the team with all the paperwork, due to the English barrier. She is a great person with a great business mindset. Together we will make this business fly.”

Nhung Anh leads weekly Zoom meetings and encourages team members to Zoom with other top leaders. They also use social media platforms like Facebook, Zalo, and Viber to grow business.

Nhung Anh also makes a point to celebrate team victories. “I personally write them a congratulatory message with every achievement. It doesn’t matter how big or small,” she says. “Together we connect and support each other.”

To “stay calm and balanced,” Nhung Anh practices yoga and meditation. She provides a helping hand with charitable groups when possible. “I also go to temple weekly to pray and spread the love of Kangen Water®,” she says. Visiting the temple has provided an added benefit. That’s also where Nhung Anh has met many customers and downline members.

Nhung Anh owes her success to hard work, dedication, kindness, and belief in the power of teamwork. She emphasizes the importance of setting goals, continuous learning, and persistence. Nhung Anh credits leaders 6A2-3 Phuong Quy Nguyen Le and 6A3-6 Nancy Doan as being the two biggest mentors on her Enagic journey, along with Enagic Founder and CEO Hironari Ohshiro.

Nhung Anh’s future goals are to achieve a 6A2-8 rank and help her team reach 6A2-3. She says, “To achieve this I am personally involved with all the leaders on my team, keeping eyes open for the hardworking, dedicated leaders, helping them, and guiding them with a clear plan.”

Distributor Profile

Nguyen Thi Son

6A

6A2-3 Nhung Anh introduced 6A Nguyen Thi Son to Kangen Water® and presented her with the opportunity to become an Independent Distributor. Nguyen feels “incredibly grateful” to Nhung and views her as a “shining example of passion and compassion” on her Enagic journey.

“What initially appealed to me about becoming an Independent Distributor was the opportunity for financial freedom,” Nguyen says. “The chance to build a legacy that can positively impact my family and future generations is incredibly motivating. Additionally, I am passionate about helping others. This journey is not just about personal gain; it’s about uplifting others and creating a ripple effect of positive change in our communities.”

She studied Accounting in Hanoi and Business Management at Hai Phong University. Both experiences provided “essential skills to understand financial strategies and customer relations, allowing me to effectively manage my business and connect with clients on a deeper level.”

Nguyen earned a 6A rank while working full-time as the Chief Accountant for a culinary corporation. That experience taught Nguyen skills she now uses as an Independent Distributor: “the importance of precision, attention to detail, and the art of presentation—skills that translate seamlessly into effectively showcasing Enagic’s innovative products.”

“My background in a high-pressure environment honed my ability to build strong relationships and communicate effectively with diverse clientele,” she adds. “I’ve learned to listen actively, understand needs, and provide tailored solutions, which is essential in creating lasting connections with customers.” The corporate culture she experienced also taught her to develop teamwork, discipline, and creativity. Nguyen says, “These qualities inspire me to cultivate a collaborative environment within my distribution network, ensuring we all thrive together.”

Now Nguyen is ready to fully focus on Independent Distribution. “While the stable income is a blessing, the stress and responsibility were definitely a rollercoaster ride,” she says. “I’m grateful for the experience and the lessons learned, but ready for new adventures that bring balance and joy!”

Nguyen sold her first Kangen Water® ionizer to her best friend. “That moment truly ignited my entrepreneurial journey,” she recalls. “I saw the opportunity in the genuine connection we shared and the trust she had in me. Her enthusiasm led her to introduce me to many of her friends, and through platforms like Facebook and Zalo, my network began to grow. This experience taught me the power of relationships and community. Today, many of those friends are not just clients; they’re now part of my team, working alongside me to build something amazing.”

To communicate, educate, and motivate her downline, Nguyen holds weekly Zoom sessions that foster connection and collaboration. “I share valuable tips and resources to empower their growth,” she says. “I’ve also opened a showroom in my home where they can experience Kangen Water® firsthand and conduct demonstrations. This hands-on approach not only enhances their understanding, but also builds confidence. We also leverage platforms like Facebook and Zoom to share our journey and successes, inspiring each other.”

Nguyen's primary goal is to reach 6A2-3 as soon as possible, but personal success is part of a larger mission. "I believe in the power of this opportunity to transform lives, and I'm passionate about helping others achieve financial freedom," she says. "By sharing this journey, I aim to create more time for families and loved ones, while also empowering others to make a positive impact. Each step I take will be fueled by my commitment to inspire and uplift those around me, leaving a lasting legacy of support and success. Together, we can achieve greatness!"

Achieving greatness requires reserving some time to recharge. "I love spending time going to cafes with my husband and friends," Nguyen says. "I love traveling with my family and friends. I love practicing yoga and singing. I use that opportunity to meet customers and spread the Enagic business opportunity with the desire to spread good opportunities to everyone I meet."

Team member 6A2 Vanessa Nguyen praised her. "Nguyen has made a remarkable impact in a very short time," she says. "Her recent trip to Japan to attend the company's 50th anniversary opened her eyes to our global vision. Upon her return to Vietnam, she has worked tirelessly to embody that vision here. Her enthusiasm is not just palpable; it is infectious. She continuously motivates our team, inspiring us all to reach new heights and achieve remarkable results."
